SPONSOR POLICY SUMMIT 2024

Friday, May 17 | 8 a.m. - 10 a.m.

Marriott Marquis Chicago | 2121 S. Prairie Avenue, Chicago

Theme: State of Black Chicago: Solutions

On Friday, May 17, 2024, the Chicago Urban League will hold its annual Summit, a policy-focused convening of Chicago's business and civic leaders that examines issues that are critical to our mission of social and economic equity for Black Chicagoans. This year's Policy Summit, themed The State of Black Chicago: Solutions, will highlight efforts to decrease the racial disparities in homeownership, employment, and income outlined in our 2023 State of Black Chicago report. We will feature two panel discussions: Increasing Homeownership as a Path to Wealth Building and Increasing Access to Family Sustaining Careers. We will also honor U.S. Secretary of Housing and Urban Development Marcia Fudge with our Humanitarian Award in recognition of her work to address racial bias in home appraisals at the national level.
